Headline:
Very warm and mostly sunny.

Today:
Another dry and bright day with good sunny spells, just some fair weather cloud possibly building in the afternoon and becoming very warm in the east with mostly light winds. However, cloudier skies through the Trossachs, particularly in the morning. Maximum temperature 25 deg C (77 deg F).

Tonight:
A fine end to the day and staying dry and mainly clear overnight, although some low cloud and a little drizzle could push into the Trossachs. Minimum temperature 12 deg C (54 deg F).

Saturday:
Another very warm and mostly sunny day with the best of the temperatures around Dundee and St Andrews. Some low cloud at first through the Trossachs and west Perthshire. Breezy. Maximum temperature 25 deg C (77 deg F).

Outlook for Sunday to Tuesday:
Staying mainly dry and settled, although a little patchy rain possible on Sunday. Bright or sunny spells developing widely during the day, warm or very warm in any sunshine.
